Are you providing child care in your home?

Are you a CERTIFIED Army Family Child Care Provider?

Speech bubbles:

- I just found out I need to be Army certified to care for other people's children in my home.
- Yes! These requirements apply to anyone caring for children in their home on a regular basis.
- Caregivers living in government quarters and RQ housing must be Army Certified before caring for children. Providing unauthorized child care jeopardizes your eligibility for housing.
- How can I become Army FCC Certified?
- Contact the Garrison CYS Family Child Care Office.
- What are the benefits for becoming FCC certified?
- You will receive extensive training at no cost. You also have access to free loan of equipment and materials, USDA food program reimbursements, financial incentives, and have a built in support network!

Become FCC Certified ... It's the right thing to do!
